

IT'S ABOUT EUROPE
IT'S ABOUT YOU
Let's talk

Women innovate Europe gains!

10 March 2016

Gender equality is a fundamental value of the European Union.

On 10 March 2016 at 5.30 pm at the Ateliers des Tanneurs, rue des Tanneurs 60a in Brussels,

In celebration of International Women's Day,

The European Commission is pleased to invite you to the public debate

Women innovate, Europe gains!

A Citizens' Dialogue on gender equality, in particular, in the fields of research and innovation.

With

Carlos Moedas, European Commissioner for Research, Science and Innovation, and
Saskia Van Uffelen, CEO Ericsson BELUX.

Simultaneous translation in English, French and Dutch will be provided.

The debate will be followed by the award of the EU Prize for Women Innovators 2016 (#EUWIN2016 - info).

A cocktail will be offered at 19:15

Participation is free of charge, upon registration at this link.

The event will be broadcasted via live streaming here.

You can also take part in the debate on Twitter by using the hashtag #EUdialogues

More information on the event website

Please circulate this invitation among your colleagues and networks, and to anyone who may be interested.